GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS BAILEY TO PERSONNEL COMMISSION

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Susan C. Bailey of Greensboro to the North Carolina State Personnel Commission.

Bailey is a fraud investigator with the N.C. Employment Security Commission. She received her Bachelor's degree in English from UNC at Greensboro.

The board establishes the rules and policies of personnel administration for the agencies and universities in the state government system to oversee the implementation of and compliance with the State Personnel Act. The board has nine members, each serving a six-year term. The governor appoints seven members. The Speaker of the House and the Senate President Pro Tempore each appoint one member.
